Harvest Festival

30 October 1999

James Mason (centre), local area fundraiser for Macmillan Cancer Relief makes a short speech of thanks. Also pictured is Adrian Cook (left) landlord of the Blue Bell & Rhae Elliott (right!).

Some of the Game Birds and other Harvest Festival Produce on display. Don't look too closely at that T-Shirt!

A Harvest Festival was held at the Blue Bell Pub, Maxey on Saturday 30 October 1999 at 7.30 p.m.

It featured a BRING & BUY sale with Fruit, Vegetables, Home-made Cakes, Jam, Chutney & Sweets.

We also held an AUCTION where punters bid for Local Produce, Game (i.e. Pheasant, Hare, Rabbit, Duck, etc.) plus any other contributions.

A FREE PLOUGHMAN'S SUPPER was provided (the "voluntary" collection plate provided was well subscribed)

Proceeds from the evening were donated to the Village's chosen charity for 1999 - Macmillan Cancer Relief.

We raised over £300...a great start to the 1999/2000 charity season. We also handed over a cheque for £5,000, being our total collection for the previous year. A full report is available at the Maxey Charity Club Page.
