Cathedral Choir Visits The Blue Bell Pub

A good time was had by all (we hope) on the evening of Wednesday 13 December 2000 when representatives of the Peterborough Cathedral Voluntary Choir visited the Blue Bell Pub to sing some Christmas music and put everybody in the right frame of mind for the festivities which lie before us!

The choir sang three 'sets' of music - some traditional and others more contemporary and upbeat - and ended with a rousing modern arrangement of 'We Wish You A Merry Christmas'.

Adrian's (landlord) hospitality was as warm as ever and a particularly fine blend of Mulled Wine had been produced for sale with all proceeds going towards choir funds (thanks Adrian!). A collection in excess of £66.00 was also made, which was very welcome as the choir are currently trying to raise funds to replace their robes, which are well past their best!

Many thanks to all those who supported this event.
