World Party

Maxey Welcomes the Millennium

And so one millennium slips into history and we look forward to the next...er, something like that. Along with the rest of the world, Maxey residents and their guests decked out the Village Hall in School Lane and the Garford's Westeria Farm in grand style to see in the Year 2000.

Inside the revelers enjoyed a cash bar and a wide ranging buffet for the modest cover price - no wallet busting embarrassment here.

Outside the hardy souls that braved the drizzle were treated to a party/disco in one of the outhouses (furnished for the evening courtesy of a Millennium Commission grant) and a traditional style bonfire and fireworks display.

We've tried to include as many photos as possible that were still (just about) in focus. The technical skills of the operator went rapidly downhill after midnight!

NB Anyone with photos of this part of the evening's festivities, please pass on some shots to the webmaster@maxey.co.uk.

A WORD OF THANKS

As usual, everyone is indebted to the people who do all the hard work behind the scenes and landowners who generously give of their time and facilities. There are too many to mention here. We all know who they are and they have our thanks for another wonderful event. Cheers! This one's for you.

Add your own captions to these. We've not included names to protect the innocent...and the guilty!

We've added some scenes from around the UK & the rest of the world to see the celebrations on a global scale. Click here.
