Fine Turnout for Annual Maxey Boxing Day Shoot

The Maxey Boxing Day Shoot - rapidly cementing itself in the annual sporting & social calendar of the village - managed to attract a fine turnout of folk wishing to bag a few clays for charity.

Held on Estate land behind the Mill on Mill Road, Maxey, the shooters, both novice and experienced, converged on the very welcome bonfire that held the icy chill-factor wind on what was a very dry, sharp and cold morning.

The handily placed bonfire reduces itself to embers as the shooting fraternity of Maxey warm their nether regions before and after their 'shoot'.

Running from 10.00 am to 12.00 noon, with free finger buffet at the Blue Bell afterwards, the annual shoot is a welcome distraction to clear the cobwebs out after too much turkey & stuffing.

With all proceeds to the Maxey Blue Bell Charitable causes from the 'Two Man 20 Bird Flush', the all-comers 'Turkey Shoot' and 'Novice 10 Bird', another successful and enjoyable event was had by all who attended.

As usual, we are indebted to a number of Maxey Residents and other helpers for the superb organisation and expertise given free to such events. Without their dedication and selflessness the village would be much the poorer. You know who you are...take a bow.

Some more 'shots' from the day below. Click on the pic to enlarge it!
