

home · email us

Wednesday
25 August 2004

Events

Facilities

Interest Groups

Site Archives

FAQs

Links

Events > Maxey Belles 'Race for Life' 2004

Race for Life 2004

Related links:

Race for Life Web Site

Cancer Research Web Site

Trade Transmissions
01733 569026

Picture This
01733 702222

Maxey Belles 'Race for Life' 2004

Belles Raise Over £800

Expectations were high and once again the team have produced superb results, writes Helen Middleton.

Despite losing two of it's members at the 11th hour, the sixteen strong team of runners and walkers raised over £800 for Cancer Research.

No pre-race nerves showing as the maxey Belles pose outside the Blue Bell Pub prior to the Burghley House Race for Life 5K.

Britain's most spectacular venues. Some of the team are already in training and with the inclusion of blokes this time round, the team can only continue to grow in it's support of this worthwhile cause

We would like to thank this years main sponsor 'Trade Transmissions' for funding the teams kit and 'Picture This' for providing our fabulous tee's.

Thanks Guys.

If you would like to find out more information about next years Race for Life or are interested in taking part in future events, please call me on 01778 345366 or email helenmiddleton@btopenworld.com

The relatively new venue at Burghley House proved challenging for both runners and walkers with long climbs and open spaces. This being said the ladies recorded times ranging from 32 minutes to 47 minutes over the 5k course, with everyone bettering their times some even setting personal bests

Some 4,000 ladies entered this years event which took place on 11 July 2004, one of over 40 events held across the country.

Race for Life is set to expand this autumn with the introduction of 10k races held at some of

contact us · site help · terms & conditions · disclaimer · site designed by Maxey Web Services

© 1998 - 2004 maxey.co.uk · all rights reserved