Barn Dance - Village Hall

Dancing to The Frog on a Bike Ceilidh Band

The Barn Dance took place on Saturday 8 October 2005, writes John Cant, and we were entertained for the evening by a local Spalding combo The Frog on a Bike Ceilidh Band.

We had a great night with approx. 65 of us charging up and down the Village Hall all evening. The dance floor was permanently full which seemed to give everyone a good appetite, as all the food that was provided vanished very quickly together with a good supply of liquid refreshment. Needless to say everyone seemed to be in very good spirits by the end of the evening.

Everyone seemed to have enjoyed themselves and we raised over £200.00 towards the Village Hall funds. We have been asked to organise another similar event next year so please watch out for it in the Maxey Newsletter and on the web site and book your tickets quickly as we cannot fit many more people into the hall for this type of event.

FROG ON A BIKE are a five piece barn dance band who have played together, very successfully, for over ten years. The Band play a mixture of English, Irish and Scots music and dances. They have their own caller to explain the dances and guide the dancers. Their traditional sound is very lively, led by melodians and concertina and supported with bass guitar, bodhran, drums, percussion, autoharp and sousaphone. Click here for their web site
